

Protecting the Rights of Future Generations

From the ICJ Climate Case to the UN Summit of the Future

A diplomatic round-table hosted by Normandy Chair for Peace and the Permanent Missions of Vanuatu and Costa Rica to the UN

Thursday June 29. 9:45 - 13:00

*Diplomat Room, UN Millennium Hotel
One UN Plaza, New York City*

Simultaneous translation in
Arabic, English, French and Spanish

Register: In-person attendance

Session 1: ICJ Case on Climate Change

A discussion on international law protecting the rights of future generations and using this law in submissions to the International Court of Justice for its Advisory Opinion on Climate Change.

Session 2: UN Summit of the Future

A discussion on proposals to the UN Summit of the Future relating to the rights of future generations.

Streamed on Facebook

Speakers

- Mr. Sanlan William (Vanuatu)
Deputy Permanent Representative of Vanuatu to the UN
- Mr Arnold Kiel Loughman (Vanuatu)
Attorney General of Vanuatu
- Prof. Emilie Gaillard (France)
*Scientific Director, Normandy Chair for Peace.
Expert on Rights of Future Generations*
- Mr Jeffery Huffines (USA)
Senior Adviser, Coalition for the UN We Need
- Alyn Ware (New Zealand/Czech Republic)
*International Representative, Aotearoa Lawyers for Peace.
Co-Chair, World Future Council Working Group for the UN
Summit of the Future.*
- Narinder Kakar (Costa Rica).
Professor Emeritus, University for Peace

Register to attend online

Event webpage

Vanuatu ICJ webpage

Cosponsors

